

Hostel seat distribution and vacant seats details for academic session 2026–27

The Ambedkar Ganguly Students' House for Women has a total intake capacity of 100 seats. The distribution of seats and details of vacant seats for the academic session 2026–27 is as follows:

1. Delhi School of Economics (Unreserved Category) – 50% Seats

| Department | Total no. of seats | Readmission 2026-27 | Vacant seats |
|-------------------|---------------------------|----------------------------|---------------------|
| Economics         | 28                        | 10                         | 18                  |
| Sociology         | 11                        | 4                          | 7                   |
| Geography         | 11                        | 8                          | 3                   |
| Total seats       | 50                        | 22                         | 28                  |

2. Reserved Category – 50% Seats

| Faculty                 | Total no. of seats | Readmission 2026-27 | Vacant seats |
|--------------------------------|---------------------------|----------------------------|---------------------|
| Faculty of Arts                | 11                        | 4                          | 7                   |
| Faculty of Law (LL.B. & LL.M.) | 10                        | 6                          | 4                   |
| Faculty of Science             | 10                        | 5                          | 5                   |
| Faculty of Social Science      | 11                        | 2                          | 9                   |
| Faculty of Management Studies  | 02                        | 0                          | 2                   |
| Faculty of Mathematics         | 02                        | 2                          | 0                   |
| Faculty of Commerce & Business | 03                        | 3                          | 0                   |
| Faculty of Music & Fine Arts   | 01                        | 0                          | 1                   |
|                                | 50                        | 22                         | 28                  |

Note: The above seat distribution is subject to university guidelines and may be revised as per administrative decisions.